Perpetual Adoration FAQs

(Frequently Asked Questions)

If I elect to participate, can I change my mind?

Yes, just call the parish office and request to be removed from the schedule. We will advertise your time slot as being open for someone else to take.

Do I have to stay for a second hour if the next person fails to show up?

No, you are not responsible for covering others' hours unless you choose to do so. Only when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed on the altar (e.g., as on First Fridays) must someone continuously be present to attend to the Lord.

What if the weather is bad or I am sick?

No one is expected to endanger their lives or their health to keep his or her hour of prayer in church. If it is possible to find a substitute, you may do so.

What if I want to change days/times?

Call the parish office to request a change of day and time. As soon as there is an opening, those on the waiting list will have the opportunity first to fill it.

What do I do when other things are happening in church?

If a liturgy or devotion is taking place (e.g., Mass, Weddings, Baptisms, Stations, etc.), you should participate in it. If some other activity is happening (e.g., cleaning, rehearsals, etc.), you should maintain your adoration of the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

What do I do for an hour in church?

How each person structures his or her prayer is a personal choice. Some read Scripture, pray the Rosary, make the Stations, meditate, read a devotional/spiritual book, or just talk to God in one's own words. Some days will be easier than others. You must develop your own rhythm.

Are there resources to help me pray?

Yes, there is a bookcase in the north entryway of church with devotional books in it. You may borrow from there during your hour. Please return all items to the bookcase after your hour in order to keep the adorer's pew neat. All materials donated to the bookcase should be dropped off at the parish office so that it can be reviewed and approved. You may bring your own books from home; however, please do not forget to take them with you when you leave at the end of your hour.

Do I have to stay in the "adorer's pew"?

No, you are asked to sign the book at the adorer's pew, but then you may pray in church wherever you are most comfortable.
